

Where does the property tax money come from?

It comes from all types of property, according to its proportional value of the total property in the County

